Tara Sadeghian

Columbia Maryland

Email: tara.sadeghian@howardcc.edu

Professional Bio

I am a college student at Howard Community College, and I am planning to major in Information Science. I am hardworking, responsible, and a creative person who enjoys learning new skills. I have experience in customer service, retail, technology, and media projects. I enjoy working with others, creating digital content, and using technology. My goal is to continue my education and build a successful career in technology and digital media.

Education

Howard Community College

Columbia Maryland

2025-Present

Major is Information Science

Planning to transfer to university

Relevant courses: Electronic Media, Introduction to Python, Fundamentals of Networking, Public Speaking, College Composition, Humanities, Introduction to Computer Concepts

Employment Experience

Wilde Lake Karate Assistant May 2024-June 2025

Supervised children ages 5-14 during the after school and summer camp program

Helped students with activities, homework, snack time to ensure a safe and fun experience for them

Assisted at the front desk by greeting parents, answering phone calls, making sure the dismissal process runs smoothly and efficiently in a timely manner.

Macy’s Seasonal Fragrance Vendor December 2025

Helped customers choose perfumes and fragrance gift sets.

Organized fragrance displays.

Assisted customers with purchases and product questions.

Maintained organization

Developed sales and communication skills.

Charlotte Russe Sales Associate June 2025-September 2026

Helped customers find clothing and accessories

Worked at the cash register and handled purchases

Organized the sales floor and fitting rooms

Processed shipment

Worked with team members to complete daily tasks

Developed communication, teamwork, and customer service skills.

JCPenney Fragrance Vendor October 2026-Present

Promote fragrances from DKNY, Guess, Oscar De la Renta.

Help customers learn about different fragrance products.

Communicate with customers in a friendly and professional way.

Maintain a neat and organized fragrance display.

Media Production Experience

Electronic Media Howard Community College

- Created a short video for a class assignment
- Learned basic video production and digital media concepts

- Practiced recording videos and organizing media content.
- Completed assignments involving online videos and digital platforms.

Technical and Software Skills

- Microsoft Word and PowerPoint
- Basic Python programming
- Basic computer networking
- Social media platforms, including Instagram, TikTok, and YouTube
- Digital content creation
- Basic video recording
- Online research and communication

Relevant projects and creative work

Media History Project – Toy Story (1995)

- Researched the history and importance of Toy Story.
- Learned how computer animation changed the movie industry.
- Used online sources and media examples to complete the assignment.

Social Media Assignment

- Explored how Instagram and TikTok are used for communication and entertainment.
- Discussed personal experiences with social media.
- Included digital media examples to support the assignment.

Short Video Production Project

- Created a one-minute video
- Practiced recording in a horizontal format
- Used the application Blackmagic Cam

Additional skills

- Customer service
- Teamwork
- Time management

- Communication
- Problem-solving
- Creativity
- Organization